CAPITAL ONE'S STATUS REPORT

Capital One provides this Status Report in advance of the status hearing set for April 2, 2015, at 11 a.m., in the above-referenced action. This Report updates the Status Reports Capital One submitted on June 18, 2014, (Dkt. 126), July 28, 2014 (Dkt. 133), September 2, 2014 (Dkt. 147), September 24, 2014 (Dkt. 166), November 12, 2014 (Dkt. 245), December 8, 2014 (Dkt. 296) and January 14, 2015 (Dkt. 316), as well as the Joint Status Report submitted by Capital One and Plaintiffs Jessica Vadella and Lisa Kemmerer on September 19, 2014 (Dkt. 158).

For the Court's reference, at the end of this Report is an updated chart listing each of the 87 cases that have been transferred by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation to MDL No. 2416 or have been transferred within the Northern District of Illinois as related to MDL No. 2416. For each case, the chart lists the case name, the Northern District of Illinois case number, the current status of the case, and the originally assigned district and magistrate judges, if any. The current status of each case is listed as active, terminated (cases that have been dismissed), or settled (cases in which the parties have reached an agreement and are working to finalize settlement and dismissal).

Three cases of the 87 transferred cases are putative class actions:

- Amadeck, et al. v. Capital One Financial Corp., et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 1:12-cv-10135;
- Martin, et al. v. Leading Edge Recovery Solutions, LLC, et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 1:11-cv-05886; and
- Patterson v. Capital Mgmt. Servs., LP, et al., N.D. Ill. Case. No. 1:12-cv-01061.

As the Court is aware, the Final Approval Order approving the class settlement is now on appeal. Of the remaining 84 cases brought by individuals or bankruptcy trustees, 51 have settled and been dismissed, 5 have settled in principle, and 28 remain active.

Capital One's Proposed Individual Case Discovery Plan

Capital One provides this individual-case discovery plan to the Court in advance of the status conference scheduled for April 2, 2015. As the Court is aware, the Final Approval Order in the class settlement has been appealed by several objectors. The Seventh Circuit has consolidated all of the appeals for briefing and disposition, with opening briefs due May 4, 2015, responsive briefs due June 3, 2015, and reply briefs due June 17, 2015. Based on this schedule, the appeals will likely be argued in the fall of 2015 and resolved sometime in the fall or winter of 2015-16.

Significant discovery has been completed in the individual cases, as summarized below:

- Document Production: Capital One has been producing all relevant account records to each individual plaintiff within 45 days of each case being transferred to this Court.
- Written Discovery: Capital One responded to the individual plaintiffs' Master Discovery requests twice, amending as them as new cases have been transferred to this Court. Capital One last amended the Master Discovery requests on September 19, 2014. Capital One plans to work in good faith with counsel for any cases transferred to this Court since that date to provide amended responses.
- "Common Topics" 30(b)(6) Deposition: The individual plaintiffs took a "common topics" 30(b)(6) deposition of Capital One's corporate representative on January 23, 2015, in Richmond, Virginia. The deposition was limited to topics that are common to all individual plaintiffs. Counsel for the individual plaintiffs reviewed and agreed on the topics before the deposition took place. The deposition was taken by Mark Lavery, who represented Plaintiff Mule. (After the deposition, Mr. Mule settled his claims with Capital One in February 2015, and a stipulation of dismissal was filed on March 30, 2015.)
- Exemplar "Individual Fact" 30(b)(6) Deposition: On January 23, 2015, Mr. Lavery also took a 30(b)(6) deposition of Capital One's corporate representative that focused solely on the facts related to Plaintiff Mule's claims

Capital One respectfully proposes the following discovery plan to allow all individual discovery to be completed during the pendency of the appeal of the Final Approval Order.

- Order the following discovery to be completed between May 1, 2015, and October 15, 2015:
 - o Responsive Pleadings: Capital One will file and serve responsive pleadings in all cases by June 12, 2015, or 30 days after a case is transferred to this Court, whichever is later. Capital One will be allowed to expressly reserve the right to move for judgment on the pleadings under Rule 12(c) after the stay on dispositive motion practice has been lifted.
 - Document Production: Capital One will produce all relevant account records to individual plaintiffs, within 45 days of transfer, as new cases are transferred to this Court.
 - Written Discovery: Capital One will work in good faith with counsel for any cases transferred to this Court since September 19, 2014, to provide amended responses to the individual plaintiffs' Master Discovery Requests. Individual plaintiffs will have 60 days from the receipt of the amended Master Discovery

- responses to bring a motion to compel to the extent any individual plaintiff believes the responses are deficient.
- o "Common Topics" 30(b)(6) Deposition of Capital One: The court reporter will make a transcript and video recording of the "common topics" 30(b)(6) deposition available to counsel for any party who requests it.
- o "Individual Fact" 30(b)(6) Depositions of Capital One: All individual fact 30(b)(6) depositions of Capital One will (a) take place between May 1, 2015, and October 1, 2015; (b) be scheduled in groups of six (three per day over two consecutive days) in a centrally-located place (or places) in the U.S. to be determined after the parties learn which individual plaintiffs would like to take such depositions; and (c) will last no longer than 2.5 hours.
 - O Capital One suggests that the Court order all individual plaintiffs to indicate to Capital One by April 15, 2015, whether they wish to take a 30(b)(6) deposition of Capital One regarding their individual facts and, if so, state (a) whether they would like to take the deposition by telephone or in person; and (b) for in-person depositions, their preferred location. Capital One will aggregate the requests and propose a centrally-located city (or cities) and dates for the depositions. To the extent Capital One cannot reach agreement regarding the dates and locations for the depositions with any individual plaintiffs by May 1, 2015, Capital One suggests that the Court set a deadline of May 15, 2015, for the parties to seek the assistance of the Court.
- o Depositions of Individual Plaintiffs: Capital One will notify any individual plaintiffs of its intent to take that plaintiff's deposition by July 1, 2015, or within 45 days of a case being transferred to this Court, whichever is later. Capital One will take the deposition in the city where the individual plaintiff resides or the district in which the case was originally filed, provided that counsel for individual plaintiffs who reside in the same city will cooperate to allow those depositions to be scheduled on consecutive days.
- Written Discovery to Individual Plaintiffs: Capital One will have until July 1, 2015, or 45 days after a case has been transferred to this Court, whichever is later, to serve written discovery on individual plaintiffs.
- Set a Non-Dispositive Motion Deadline of October 15, 2015.
- Order that all Dispositive Motions will be stayed until the appeal of the Final Approval Order is resolved;
- Order that Individual Plaintiffs Who Failed To Opt Out of the class settlement and whose calls fall within the class period (and thus fall within the class settlement) may not engage in any discovery until the appeal is resolved, at which time Capital One may move to dismiss on the basis of the class settlement's release. The affected individual plaintiffs will then have the opportunity to assert why they are not bound by the settlement. If an individual plaintiff who failed to opt out obtains an order from this Court showing that he or she is not bound by the settlement, he or she may then pursue discovery.

• Schedule Status Conferences to address the progress of individual discovery where the parties may appear in person or by telephone for June 11, August 13, and October 8, 2015. A status conference to set a dispositive motion deadline will be held within 30 days of the entry of final judgment in the appeal of the class settlement.
